National curriculum in England – Online Safety links with Computing

Purpose of study

Computing ensures that pupils become digitally literate – able to use, and express themselves and develop their ideas through, information and communication technology – at a level suitable for the future workplace and as active participants in a digital world.

The national curriculum for computing aims to ensure that all pupils:

- Are responsible, competent, confident and creative users of information and communication technology.

Subject content - Key Stage 1

Pupils should be taught to:

- Use technology safely and respectfully, keeping personal information private; identify where to go for help and support when they have concerns about content or contact on the internet or other online technologies.

Subject content - Key Stage 2

Pupils should be taught to:

- Use search technologies effectively, appreciate how results are selected and ranked, and be discerning in evaluating digital content.
- Use technology safely, respectfully and responsibly; recognise acceptable/unacceptable behaviour; identify a range of ways to report concerns about content and contact.

Internet Safety Relationships and Communication	I understand the need to protect my private information	Lesson 1 – Talking Safely Online Starter What are the positives and negatives of the internet? Create a list on the IWB and discuss. Main Ask the children, what is private/personal information? Why should you keep it private? Show the children the definition of ‘personal information’. Personal information is information about you. This includes your name, address or telephone number. It can also be your school, the type of job you do, the things you buy when you are shopping and what you like to do in your free time. Compare the class’ ideas with this definition. Show the class the profiles of two children. Give each pair of children one profile, a pencil and a highlighter pen. Ask them to read the profile and highlight any information that they think should never be shared with another person. Discuss the information that children think should never be shared. Seek reasons for their recommendations. Give each pair a ‘Who needs to know what?’ grid. Ask the children to tick the information that could be shared with the named people. Once children have finished, discuss as a class. Plenary Children to make a pledge to answer the question, how will you ensure your private information is protected? Keep these and refer back to them when/if necessary.	IWB Profiles ‘Who needs to know what?’ grid Pledge sheet

Information Literacy Self Image and Identity	I can explore the way in which the media can play a powerful role in shaping our ideas	Lesson 5 – Stereotypes Starter Mind map the word ‘Stereotype’ to get an idea of what children already know.	WB Video

		Main Watch the Moonsand advert - https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Zgdj5FXOOp8 Children to complete the Venn diagram on the IWB to explore similarities and differences in the two adverts. They could consider: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li><input type="checkbox"/> Adjectives used</li><li><input type="checkbox"/> Language used</li><li><input type="checkbox"/> Music</li><li><input type="checkbox"/> Would all boys/girls like this advert? Why/why not?</li></ul> Refer back to the mind map earlier in the lesson. Using what they already know and these adverts, can the children come up with a definition of a stereotype? Discuss definitions and show the actual definition on the IWB. A stereotype is an idea or belief many people have about a thing or group that is based upon how they look on the outside, which may be untrue or only partly true. Stereotyping people is a type of prejudice because what is on the outside is a small part of who a person is. Working in table groups, children to come up with a list of possible stereotyping scenarios/situations they may come across in and out of school, e.g. sport, games, toys etc. Once they have done this, ask the children to think of ways to challenge these stereotypes. Feedback as a class. Plenary Children to reflect on the online safety unit. What have they learnt? Is there anything they would now do differently? Do they have any advice for others?
